

HCL NAMED AS UK INVESTOR OF THE YEAR -
GLOBAL TECHNOLOGY & IT SERVICES PIONEER ACCLAIMED AS INWARD INVESTMENT LEADER

London, UK, November 2, 2006 – HCL Technologies (HCL), Indian global technology & IT services provider has been named as the UK Trade and Investment India (UKTI) Business Awards' 'Investor of the Year' at a prestigious gala event in Mumbai India.

UK Trade & Investment (UKTI) is a UK government organisation that helps businesses locate in the UK and grow internationally. The UKTI Business Awards are the first ever business awards set up by any government to recognise India's success in global business. These awards were launched in September 2005 by the British Prime Minister, Tony Blair, and serve to highlight the excellent business relationship between India and the UK. The award, presented by the UK's Special Representative for International Trade and Investment, His Royal Highness Prince Andrew, the Duke of York, recognises the pioneering investment HCL has made in the UK and the success the IT services giant has made on UK shores.

HCL has significant presence the UK, which includes two delivery centers in Northern Ireland (UK). Currently, HCL employs over 2,000 people at its Apollo facility in Belfast, Northern Ireland making it one of the top-10 private employers and the largest BPO firm in Northern Ireland (UK). HCL's presence in the UK continues to grow based around deals such as DSG International, a landmark deal in Indian IT industry. HCL was a pioneer in developing a near-shore UK presence having been incorporated in the UK for almost 15 years. This experience is now guiding the company in developing world-class solutions for global clients from a UK base.

Ranjit Narasimhan, President & CEO, HCL's BPO Services, applauded the work of the teams who have made this investment such a success: "The UK and India have a rich history of bilateral trade spanning centuries and the more recent and growing IT and ITeS industries in India continue this tradition. We are very proud of our pioneering role in this and it is a testament to the hard work and results of the HCL teams throughout the UK that we have been chosen as the Investor of the Year."

Rajeev Sawhney, Corporate Vice President & Head of HCL in UK thanked the UKTI for this recognition and said "We are absolutely delighted to be at the forefront of the £7.9 billion bilateral trade between the two nations by being recognised as the Investor of the Year by UKTI. As a young IT services company and amongst the fastest growing, HCL provides transformational gains to its clients through investment in UK. The award also recognises our strategy to deliver positive economic developments in all of our active market, bringing global benefits to local presence."
